

Lorna Ishimwe

BOSTON-BASED MODEL & CREATIVE

Beauty with dignity. Creativity with purpose. Presence with confidence.

Who she is

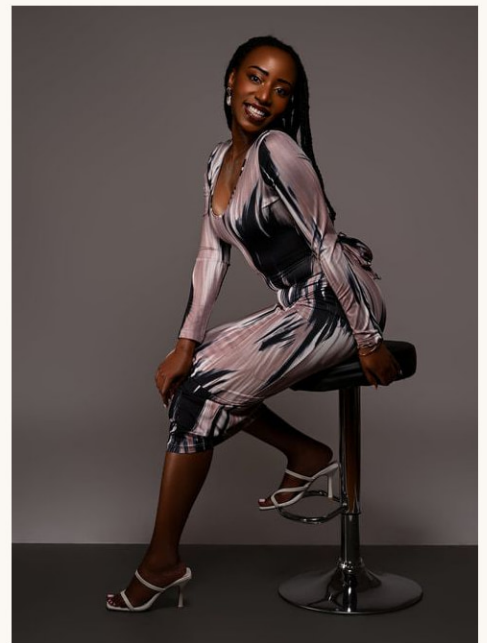

Lorna Ishimwe is a Boston-based model and creative working across editorial, fashion, beauty, lifestyle and commercial photography, with catwalk and campaign bookings.

She approaches every collaboration with preparation, professionalism and respect for the people on both sides of the camera — arriving ready, taking direction well, and treating a set as a shared piece of work rather than a performance.

Her work sits within AHAVAH Modeling, a division of AHAVAH Enterprises: a purpose-led group whose Christian values shape how it conducts business. Honesty about what is offered, care for the people involved, and dignity as a standard rather than a slogan.
